A little rainbow descended upon a birthday celebration in Jalan Tempinis yesterday. About 40 people of various hairdos, waistlines, colours, ages, nose and eye shapes dropped by Readings at Seksan's. Readings, as the name informs, is a monthly gathering of people who enjoy literature, and it just turned five.

Over the years, the event has drawn a stream of local and foreign talents who come by to read their own work. Doesn't matter if you're published; if you dream of being a writer, this may just be your platform.
