Established in 1923, and officially renamed in 2006 - from Selangor Chinese Assembly Hall (SCAH) to the Kuala Lumpur and Selangor Chinese Assembly Hall (KLSCAH) - the KLSCAH is now 97 years old, and will soon usher in a century.

With the arrival of the 100th birthday, KLSCAH will reflect on its past and look forward to its future. Continuing recent years of involvement and promotion efforts for diversity, KLSCAH officially launched a trilingual website on December 24, 2020. With its roots in Chinese communities, the organisation is further ready to defend and serve multilingual communities, and a future that highlights the importance of cross-ethnic collaborations. (Portal: <https://klscah.org.my/?lang=en>)

The KLSCAH website was established in 1999. It is one of the earliest associations in Malaysia to set up an official website. During this period, it has experienced three significant network revisions. However, since the most recent revision in 2010, the existing Chinese-language website has long required an update.

The new official website has a revamp unlike its predecessor. Due to the advancement of network technology and the drive for digital transformation within Chinese communities, these have given push for changes to keep up with the development of current technological breakthroughs. KLSCAH has always especially been a voice for Chinese communities and defended the rights of citizens. In recent years, it has also actively driven the promotion of multi-ethnic efforts.

After months of discussion, re-planning and testing, KLSCAH officially launches the trilingual website on December 24 and carried out a redesign on the user interface (UI) and content structure of the old website. In continuation of service towards Chinese communities, KLSCAH hopes to expand its reach within non-Chinese communities, and even transnational communities. This allows different ethnicities to learn about KLSCAH in Chinese, Malay or English; of the organisation's establishment in 1923, its witness to the rise of Kuala Lumpur as the nation's capital, and going through thick and thin with developments of Chinese communities and the nation. Netizens of Malaysia will gain an understanding of the organisation's current developments and history, of KLSCAH and its main committees in their 97-year old historical stand together with the nation, through a convenient new user experience.

KLSCAH rai kepelbagaian, lancar portal pelbagai Bahasa

Sejak ditubuhkan pada tahun 1923, dan dinamakan semula secara rasmi pada tahun 2006 – daripada Dewan Perhimpunan China Selangor (SCAH) kepada Dewan Perhimpunan China Kuala Lumpur dan Selangor (KLSCAH) – KLSCAH telah melalui tempoh 97 tahun dan akan memasuki satu abad.

Sebagai usaha dalam mempromosikan ciri-ciri kepelbagaian merentasi etnik, KLSCAH secara rasmi melancarkan laman web tiga bahasa pada 24 Disember 2020, bertapakkan komuniti Cina, pada masa yang sama, berdepan dengan komuniti berbilang bahasa, dan masa depan yang mengangkat peri pentingnya kewujudan masyarakat majmuk. (Portal: <https://klscach.org.my/?lang=ms>)

Laman web KLSCAH ditubuhkan pada tahun 1999 dan merupakan salah satu organisasi terawal di Malaysia yang melancarkan laman web rasmi. Dalam tempoh ini, ia telah mengalami tiga kali penyemakan dan usaha kemaskini yang signifikan. Namun, sejak semakan sebelum ini pada tahun 2010, ciri-ciri monolingual yang sedia ada dalam laman web rasmi KLSCAH boleh dikatakan tidak relevan lagi.

Fungsi laman web rasmi sekarang telah dikemaskini. Ini merupakan salah satu usaha KLSCAH dalam melaksanakan transformasi digital pertubuhan Cina di Malaysia. Secara khusus, KLSCAH lantang bersuara dalam membawa pandangan umum masyarakat Cina dan sering mempertahankan hak-hak warganegara Malaysia. Pada tahun-tahun kebelakangan ini, ia juga secara aktif turut serta dalam mempromosikan usaha merentasi etnik.

Oleh itu, setelah berbulan-bulan berbincang, merancang dan menguji, KLSCAH secara rasmi melancarkan laman web rasmi dwibahasa pada 24 Disember, dan menjalankan reka bentuk halaman dan susun atur teks dari laman web yang ada. Selain terus melayani masyarakat Cina dalam pelbagai aspek, kami juga berharap dapat memperluas jangkauan masyarakat bukan Cina dan juga komuniti transnasional, agar masyarakat berbilang bahasa dapat mengetahui sejarah KLSCAH melalui bahasa Cina, Melayu atau Inggeris sejak tahun 1923. Pengguna laman web juga boleh memiliki pemahaman yang lebih komprehensif mengenai status terkini KLSCAH, termasuk status pelbagai jawatankuasa utama KLSCAH, pengumuman terkini dan pelbagai aktiviti dianjurkan oleh KLSCAH.
