Once again, Victor Chin has kindly produced a video of our Roadshow, this time of Darah Rakyat, which was held in Ipoh on Saturday. You can also read his entry here

There's something to be said about a venue on the topmost floor of a building which captures what we've set out to do: Share a broader perspective.

Ipoh, the city in a limestone bowl and born of tin, played host to the Saya Anak Bangsa Malaysia Roadshow on Saturday. Held at the Excelsior Hotel, the Roadshow attracted over 110 people with its theme Darah Rakyat and the potent idea offered of collective power.

This pictorial is dedicated to the many faces who took an entire Saturday afternoon off to attend the Perak roadshow.
