The skies were a threatening grey by 8 o'clock. It would surely be a matter of minutes before the rain poured. In the backdrop of the numerous pondok panas set up at the Barisan Nasional's gathering point, the Port Dickson sea was etching dark and gloomy lines. But inside the pondok, a different sentiment permeated.

Overheard: "Today, we change the story. No way dia boleh menang 8-0 (in the peninsula)."

500x300px. The image is a photograph of a group of men, some wearing white kufis and sarongs, marching outdoors on a wet street. They are holding up a long red banner with white text, which appears to say 'USK' or 'USK'. Several green flags are also visible, held by the participants. The background shows trees and a utility pole.
