

By Lee Wei Lian

First published in The Malaysian Insider

KUALA LUMPUR, May 5 — Environmentalists and alternative energy producers have criticised the approval for Malaysia's first nuclear power plant, saying it was rushed through without adequate public consultation given the risks of radioactivity.

Centre for Environment, Technology And Development Malaysia (Cetdem) chairman Gurmit Singh said a nuclear power plant was a risky undertaking and slammed the lack of public consultation.

