On a rainy day, the kids go to the playground. The teacher says, "Let's play a game of hide-and-seek. I'll be the seeker, and you'll be the hiders. Find a place to hide, and I'll try to find you." The kids run to the trees and bushes, hiding themselves. The teacher counts to 100 and then says, "Ready, set, go!" The kids run out from their hiding places, and the teacher catches them one by one. The teacher says, "Great job! You all hid very well. Let's play again sometime." The kids cheer and run back to the teacher.
