

It was a cloudy morning at the parking area in front of Bukit Aman. Perhaps the sky too decided to join in and stand in solidarity with family members of three young men who were shot dead by the police near Glenmarie, Shah Alam in the wee hours of 13th November 2010. Today, accompanied by lawyers, representatives from NGOs and also concerned members of the public, they were gathered in search for answers for their questions which have been long met with a resounding silence from the authorities.

Equally dark were the faces. Faces that are tired. Faces that couldn't rest. Faces of those who have lost a child, a brother, a grandson, and a friend.

The face of a father who will no longer see his son, for reasons still unclear.

Unanswered Questions - Bukit Aman, 8th January 2011

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

The face of a broken mother who lost her 15 year old to fatal shots of a gun.

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

update on the status of investigation was spoken on behalf of the family. Demand for an immediate

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

However, this could not be given by the officer in charge of receiving this party that was never

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

transparency and accountability. In 2011, before everyone present and promised to provide transparency and accountability. In 2011, before everyone present and promised to provide

Written by Nanda

Saturday, 08 January 2011 18:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 17 March 2011 03:34

---

Unanswered Questions - Bukit Aman, 8th January 2011
Pictures - NandaKumarNanda