In its continuing focus on the lives of marginalized Anak Bangsa Malaysia, SABM's Special Events Team chanced upon a group of people up north and down south who continue to prove that love is indeed a many-splendoured thing. Refusing to be spectators in the arena of life, they have devoted their time, energy and resources over the years to a worthy cause and, in effect, have set a benchmark in the art of giving Giving is an act that adds value to another life. Where a recipient has absolutely nothing to offer in return, the giver can respond with a selfless love that cherishes human life..

Persatuan Kebajikan Wu Ji Dao's members at its main branch in Bukit Mertajam and newer branches in Kulim and Johor Bahru have been doing just that over the years. Again and again they give of their time and their resources to bring hope and cheer to the physically challenged, the abandoned, the sick, the fatherless and the broken in spirit.

Preparing for the hours of the day, to see to the different groups that the visits are Pupils are to join in fun activities including dances, singing and getting the children and parents to join in the celebrations.

PKWLD's members also involve themselves with the children's studies and with health