THE rain stayed away this past Sunday afternoon - to everyone's relief - and in its absence a rainbow spread over the delirious district of Chow Kit. Camped just outside KL Krashpad , a 24-hour youth centre, 10 teenagers presented a sonic, pulse-pumping and visual gift to their neighborhood. The message - togetherness; within all that diversity, togetherness. For us who were there to enjoy the afternoon, we discovered once again that terima kasih is more than mere greeting. That good things do dwell in the exchange of love.

We. Us. Our.

That's Chow Kit Kita .

Straits-Mongrel is a free online platform for sharing and discussing local news, events, and issues. It is a community-driven website where anyone can contribute their thoughts and opinions. The website is currently under development and will be launched soon. We are excited to have you as a part of our community and look forward to your contributions.
